

briefly...

One of the wonderful things about summer is the abundance of outdoor activities. Concerts, festivals, sporting events and picnics are great ways to spend a sunny afternoon or warm evening, but after a few hours in our humid climate, air conditioning prevails!

Instead of standing over a hot grill, why not enjoy a leisurely dinner at F. Scott's. Our new Executive Chef, Jason McConnell, has done a fine job with our new summer menu. His last two menus were met with a great response, and a few of his signature dishes, like the Tempura Fried Salmon, received so many compliments, he's decided to bring them back on this summer's menu.
